

About Joelle Sullivan, J.D.

Joelle Sullivan has been practicing law since 1996 after graduating law cum laude from the University of San Francisco School of Law. She clerked for Justice Joyce Kennard of the California Supreme Court from 1996-1997. She moved in-house, first as VP of Human Resources and General Counsel then as lead employment counsel and human resources management, both at high tech companies in the Bay Area. She had lead responsibility for employment and human resource policy and practice on a daily basis. Joelle has lectured extensively on employment law best practices and is a certified mediator in the state of California. Joelle came on board with Fair Measures in 2005.

What Clients Say:

"Joelle was great. I've taken versions of this type of course at every company at which I've worked and the legal perspective given in this one made it the most valuable I've taken yet!"

- Manager, Yahoo!

"Good energy - her background as an attorney lent itself to a lot of relevant pieces of law, and examples for discussion. Personable - fielded banter among the group well."

- Manager, Hitachi Data Systems

"Joelle took what I expected would have been a dry subject and made it thought-provoking, entertaining and interactive."

- Manager, ARRIS

"The instructor knew what she was teaching and made this class a pleasant experience."

- Manager, Oracle Corp.

"Very personable and knowledgeable - great delivery. Joelle made the most complex issues easy to understand."

- Manager, Hyperion Solutions

"Excellent presenter. Very knowledgeable about the law! Great stories, kept it interesting. Excellent pace (not too fast, not too slow)."
