

About Julie Crane J.D.

Julie Crane has been an attorney since 1991. She has defended claims of wrongful discharge, employment discrimination, and harassment before state and federal courts and administrative matters before the Office of Civil Rights, the National Labor Relations Board, the Equal Opportunity Employment Commission and California's Department of Fair Employment and Housing. In addition to litigation, Ms. Crane has drafted policies and procedures implementing the Americans with Disabilities Act and the family leave laws and conducted Fair Labor Standards Act audits. She has presented numerous training seminars for supervisors and managers on employment law issues both as contractor and in-house counsel. Julie joined Fair Measures in 2000.

What Clients Say

"Excellent, motivated, knowledgeable instructor! This class should be regularly taken by employees and managers."

- Manager, Oracle Corp.

"Engaging, clear, articulate and seeks feedback on our understanding of subject."

- Manager, Hitachi Data Systems, Inc.

"Extremely knowledgeable and engaging speaker. I would highly recommend any manager or company for classes led by Julie Crane."

- Manager, Yahoo!

"Julie was very clear and communicated well. Workshop was lively and all the group participated."

- Manager, East Bay Municipal Utilities District

"Perfect facilitator!"

- Manager, Granite Construction

"Very informative session that has an immediate impact on day-to-day business conduct. Thank you Julie!"

- Manager, Oracle Corp.