

About Stephen Duggan J.D.

Stephen Duggan graduated from the Law School at the University of Notre Dame in 1978, while on active duty in the Air Force. He has extensive experience for over fifteen years representing management litigating cases of wrongful termination, employment discrimination, and sexual harassment. Mr. Duggan also has experience in all phases of administrative litigation of unfair labor practice charges, and class and individual complaints of employment discrimination. He has been an instructor of seminars for supervisors and managers on labor management relations and other personnel issues, and for lawyers in basic and advanced trial advocacy courses. Stephen joined Fair Measures in 1998.

What Clients Say:

"Outstanding! Steve is very articulate and knowledgeable. Excellent presentation skills. Enjoyed the class!"

- Manager, Sun Microsystems, Inc.

"Steve was GREAT. He was knowledgeable and kept the class interested."

- Manager, Oracle Corp.

"Excellent Presenter. He made the course very interesting (the time 'flew' by), and is very knowledgeable."

- Manager, Yahoo!, Inc.

"Steve clearly had in-depth knowledge of the material and presented it in an engaging format. Course was great and serves as a great reference book."

- Manager, Autodesk, Inc.

"Steve did an outstanding job in presenting the information."

- Manager, Xilinx Corp.

"The instructor is very skilled in communication and getting everyone involved. No one in the class was made to think their values weren't important."

- Manager, Granite Construction, Inc.